

Expanding Your Horizons 2019

Save the Date: November 9, 2019

Missouri State University

McQueary College of Health and Human Services invites middle school girls to join us and explore the exciting, weird, and sometimes icky side of health sciences.

Breakfast, lunch, and snacks will be provided.

This year we are getting the entire campus involved!

Visit the website for more information and to register.
